

CII Contract Strategy Virtual Summit 2021

General Sponsorship Agreement

*Presented on the Pheedloop Virtual Event Platform to the Global Construction Industry
June 28-29, 2021*

The Construction Industry Institute (CII) is hosting its first-ever Contract Strategy Virtual Summit, organized by Group ASI. All participants of the global construction industry are welcome to attend - not just CII members! The Summit is focused on exploration of – and recommendations around - traditional and collaborative contracting models for the construction project owner and their contractors and suppliers. This event will be hosted on a virtual event platform designed for high-quality content delivery and rich online networking.

The Summit program is designed for project owners and their suppliers, specifically senior decision makers, VPs, PMs, PDs, Field Management CMs, Superintendents, Supply Chain Staff and Business Development representatives. The Summit content is being developed and presented by 13 SMEs from industry, representing some of the most knowledgeable individuals in contract strategy, including 5 CII thought leaders.

Sponsors of the Summit will be recognized as leaders supporting the advancement and adoption of project performance and construction productivity best practices. Sponsors of this event will be featured in our virtual summit app and will have special opportunities for exposure to – and networking with – summit attendees.

This is a Construction Industry Institute (CII) event, organized and administrated by Group ASI, Inc.
